MOVE YOUR BODY

You get hotter than a cherry on a cigarette, bet every dollar mom's a model but you're better yet. She's twenty-one out on the run and turning every head, your body's built just like a weapon and you're using it. But the devil can hear you when you say...
(Chorus) C'mon and get up, move your body, use your body, lose control. Rub it right up, against my body, take my body make it yours (so get up). We're gonna light this room on fire, ya you and I will burn it up tonight, (so get up). The two of us are gonna fuel this fire, no way in hell we're slowing down tonight.
(Verse 2) Then just for fun you take your tongue and run it over my lip, and gotta love the way she does it for the hell of it. We're in positions that most people only say they know, you got hand right on a landmine ready to blow! But the devil can hear you when you say...
(Repeat Chorus)
(Bridge) You want me tappin' on your back door. You got me tappin' on your back door baby. I got you actin' like you want more, now that I'm tappin' on your back door baby. But the devil can hear you when you say...
(Repeat Chorus)

PORN STAR DANCING

Kelly won't kiss my friend Cassandra, Jessica won't play ball, Mandy won't share her friend Miranda. Doesn't anybody live at all. Amanda won't leave me empty handed, got her number from a bathroom stall, Brandy just brought way too much baggage and that st just gets old but I got a girl who can put on a show, the dollar decides how far you can go
(Chorus) She wraps those hands around that pole, she licks those lips and off we go, she takes it off nice and slow 'cuz that's porn star dancin' (hey) she don't play nice she makes me beg, she drops that dress around her legs, and I'm sittin' right by the stage for this porn star dancin' (hey) your body's lightin' up the room, and I want a naughty girl like you, there's nothing hotter than a porn star dancin' Stacey's gonna save herself for marriage but that's just not my style, she's got a pair that's nice to stare at, but I want girls gone wild but I know a place where there's always a show, the dollar decides how far you can go
(Repeat Chorus)
Your body's lightin' up the room, and I want a naughty girl like you, let's throw a party just for two, you know those normal girls won't do they won't do, I need a girl that's kind of frisky, drinking with the fellas takin' shots and gettin' tipsy, always wanna party 'cuz she's sexy as hell, and if I ever get in trouble bailin' me outta jail, 'cuz she a stone-cold stunner, hotter than the summer, when she step up in the club every man and woman want her, she make me wanna get a stripper pole up in my home 'cuz her porn star dancin' has got me in the zone
(Repeat Chorus)

EVERY LIE

So where did you sleep the night before, I doubt that your phone was dying. I'm supposed to believe that was what you wore, said you were alone I don't buy it...Now I can't stay...
(Chorus) Surrounded by every lie that won't come true, now you wanna take the time but why would you, think you're gonna make it right but how could you, so I can't stay, surrounded by every lie
(Verse 2) You might as well just stop crying, it doesn't mean much to me anymore, a little too late to start trying, I'm taking this love off of life support... Now I can't stay...
(Repeat Chorus) (x2)
(Bridge) Trying to undo the love that I'm tied to, who haven't you lied to (Repeat Chorus) (x2)

LIKE NOBODY ELSE

September seventh and she's heading for school, she'll probably leave me for some college fool and I know that's just the way it goes. In front of your place under the street light, face to face here on our last night, you should know one thing before you go. I tell her, we've gone too far to give up now and like a bomb it all comes out I like the way that
(Chorus) She looks at me like nobody else, like nobody's ever done she makes me feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever done
(Verse 2) By the twenty-seventh she's been gone for weeks, I'm terrified she won't remember me and I know that's just the way it goes I stare at her picture stuck up on the fridge, face to face with the one I miss, I'm alone and reaching for the phone to tell her, we've gone too far to give up now and like a bomb it all comes out I like the way that
(Chorus) She looks at me like nobody else, like nobody's ever done she makes me feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever done and I wanna make her feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever done and I wanna make her feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever done
(Verse 3) Back from the city standing in the rain, asked if she'd be going back again, she said no this time I'm staying home
(Chorus) And she looks at me like nobody else, like nobody's ever done and she makes me feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever done and I wanna make her feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever done and I wanna make her feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever done like nobody I, like nobody I, love somebody like, like nobody else like nobody I, like nobody I, love somebody like, like nobody else

THE WORLD BELONGS TO ME

(Chorus) I look to the sky but there's nobody watching, left here behind I'm alone and forgotten, so now, the world belongs to me, the world belongs to me
(Verse 1) So many roads that I've taken, when nobody thought I could make it, and even though I had to go it alone, I still survived when you live in the darkness there's always confusion, sometimes your mind will provide the illusion, and your whole life can change in the blink of an eye, yeah.
(Chorus) I look to the sky but there's nobody watching, left here behind I'm alone and forgotten, so now, the world belongs to me to live and to die by the word that is spoken, the legend's a lie and the silence is broken, so now, the world belongs to me, the world belongs to me
(Verse 2) I opened a box full of secrets, where the strongest of locks couldn't keep them, and even though I was the last to know, they were living inside when you see through the darkness and find the solution, how quickly your eyes will remove the illusion, and your life is gonna change in the blink of an eye, yeah
(Chorus) I look to the sky but there's nobody watching, left here behind I'm alone and forgotten, so now, the world belongs to me to live and to die by the word that is spoken, the legend's a lie and the silence is broken, so now, the world belongs to me, the world belongs to me
(Bridge) Yeah, someone's gotta show you the right way, yeah, there was nothing standing in my way, yeah
(Chorus) I look to the sky but there's nobody watching, a hero is born from a soul that's forgotten, so now, the world belongs to me to live and to die by the word that is spoken, the legend's a lie and the silence is broken, so now, the world belongs to me, the world belongs to me.

SAVE ME

Spanish lullabies, under moonlit skies, we found love there. Dancing in the sand, walking hand-in-hand, both without a care. Haunted by the past, completely in our grasp, simply unaware. Was it meant to last, it fell apart so fast, life is just not fair. It's time to face, what this love has done to me, I can't escape, only your love can save me.
(Chorus) You're the only one who matters, and the only one for me, now I'm lonelier than ever only your love can save me. I've wanted this forever but I want you all for me, you could put me back together, only your love could save me.
(Verse 2) Each day I'm in hell, everyone can tell by the look on my face. Not one day goes by that I don't wonder why, don't believe ts fate. It's time to face, what this love has done to me, I can't escape, only your love can save me.
(Repeat Chorus) (Your love could save me)
(Bridge) I'm stuck in this nightmare, while I'm sleeping or when I'm awake. I gotta find another way, to survive another day. I can't even think clear, 'cuz all I can see is your face. I gotta find another way, to survive another day. Now was there some better place where nothing can stand in our way. It's time face, what this love has done to me, I can't escape, only your love can save me.
(Repeat Chorus)
Only your love can save me. Only your love can save me.

CAN'T FORGET YOU

When it's said and done you're the only one, and when it's said and done, you're the only one, you're the only one
(Verse 1) Whoever said this pain would ever go away, didn't know what it meant to, be here without you. Is everything you see, reminding you of me, does it hurt when you breathe too, 'cuz it does when I do, 'cuz it does when I do
(Chorus) When anybody says your name I wanna run away, I keep remembering I can't forget you and doesn't matter when I try, it happens anyway, it's been forever and I can't forget you with every single day, it won't go away, the way I feel about you and when it's said and done, you're the only one, and I can't regret you, so I can't forget you
(Verse 2) I hate to feel this way, my days all feel the same, and yesterday was proof that tomorrow will too no matter what they say, can't drink it all away, 'cuz all that I do, is think about you, is think about you
(Repeat Chorus)
(Bridge) Stop haunting my dreams, please set me free stop haunting my dreams, please set me free you're the only one
(Chorus) When anybody says your name I wanna run away, I keep remembering I can't forget you and doesn't matter when I try, it happens anyway, it's been forever and I can't forget you with every single day, it won't go away, the way I feel about you and when it's said and done, you're the only one, and I can't regret you stop haunting my dreams, (it's been forever and I can't forget you) please set me free, (it's been forever and I can't forget you) stop haunting my dreams, (it's been forever and I can't forget you) please set me free, (it's been forever and I can't forget you)

GOODBYE

She's yelling on the phone, she's yelling on the phone again. And she's banging on the door; she's losing all control again. What's she doing in the tub? She's shooting up the junk again. And all the water in the stream couldn't ever wash her clean, in my head. And I'm leaving.
(Pre-Chorus) Demon with the needles leaning over your shoulder. It's over. I pictured this differently. I cast us in perfect light. I'd trade an eternity, for what's been taken away. Feels like, the future for you and me, our lives, fades in the failing light, this time, you drowned us in misery, that's why, now you forced me to say
(Chorus) Goodbye, my love, so long, you've thrown us away
(Verse 2) It's been going on for months, said she'd only done it once with friends. I couldn't keep her clean at all, every dealer that she called was a friend. Believe it.
(Repeat Pre-Chorus)
(Repeat Chorus) (x2)
(Bridge) I remember how it worked, back when we were both in love again, made-up memories. They were few and far between, no it wasn't meant to be from then.
(Verse 3) Been stuck inside a dream, woke up and I could breathe the air. Been down this road before I'll make it on my own I swear.
(Pre-Chorus) Feels like, I pictured this differently, our lives, I cast us in perfect light, this time, I'd trade an eternity, that's why, you fkin' forced me to say
(Chorus)(x2)
Goodbye, I'm saving her, my love, I wave to her, so long, you've thrown us away.
